Dear Vincent:

Your thoughtful telegram was deeply appreciated. I would have acknowledged it even sooner, but the horrendous happenings in the Tomb of Ligeia on channel 9 yesterday reduced me to a catatonic state from which I am only slowly emerging.

The concerts, both at ELA and the Wilshire Ebell, drew large audiences and were well received. The reception at the Vincent Price Gallery following the ELA concert gave many people their first opportunity to appreciate the marvelous contribution you have made to that institution.

With fond good wishes,

Yours ever,

Henri
