VINCENT PRICE

Dear Henri

Many thanks for your lovely letter. I wish what you said was true but quite honestly I was truly upset not to have given a better performance of the waltz. I was completely lost and the fact that I can't read music taught me a great lesson.

However I did enjoy my association with you very much and hope if ever we work together again not to be so harassed... I truly should have known better, but I love working with music - anyway my apologies!

Yours gratefully

V. Price

Dear Henri

Many thanks for your lovely letter. I wish what you said was true but quite honestly I was truly upset not to have given a better performance of the Walton. I was completely lost and the fact that I can't read music taught me a great lesson.

However I did enjoy my association with you very much and hope if ever we work together again not to be so harrassed... I truly should have known better, but I love working with music – anyway my apologies!

Ever Gratefully
Vincent
