Dear Sir,

I wish to let you know that my house at 35 Evelyn Jones has been bombed. The cupboard in which you left your music is intact but there is practically no roof on the house & as the hall door & front windows are all gone, anyone can walk into the place. I have got most of ^{my} things away but cannot take your music & do not know of anyone else who could do so.

Yours truly
to Mr. Palmer.
