July 12 1978.

Dear Henri.

It appears our letters crossed, yours at one altitude, mine at another. I was so relieved about that half foot. I'd have been badly concerned if it had not been so! I wish I could believe there might be a chance to see you in L.A. when all is over here. But I fear not. I go to Reno again for some more Shumanigans — TV and recording, and then directly to An-streelya where I shall be overdue by then. I am happy that I learn from Hiroko that she is planning to come here for a few days in August. Her very first visit. Did you know that Tantommi has married into the Santory family? He won't have to worry where his next whisky is coming from, no worry, generally, about things fiscal and financial. Another Piattowski?

He and his bride are due next week.

Tom Robson? I can't make it out, and I don't suppose I'll ever. Too, too bad. You are sorely missed.

My love to you all. Let's keep in touch.

as ever

William

I feel very well and worry about nothing.

Dear Henri,

It appears our letters crossed, yours at one altitude, mine at another. I was so relieved about that half foot. I'd have been vastly concerned if it had not been so!
I wish I could believe there might be a chance to see you in L.A. when all in over here. But I fear not.
I go to Provo again for some more shenanigans – TV and recording, and this directly to Au-streyelya where I shall be overdue by then. I am happy that I learn from Hiroko that she is planning to come here for a few days in August. Her very first visit. Did you know

coming from, nor worry, generally, about things fiscal and financial. Another Piatigorski?
He and his bride are due next week.

Tom Rolston? I can't make it out, and I don't suppose I'll ever. Too, too bad. You are sorely missed.

My love to you all. Let's keep in touch.

As ever
William

I feel very well and worry about nothing.
