Dear Henri,

I can't buzz off to Japan without sending you these very few lines to thank you for your wonderful letter of 7 November. It is all too flattering and I only hope I can live up to it. The last bone scan, of about three weeks ago, showed that the situation has not deteriorated since it was first discovered last July. My doctor's report is all encouragement, and I continue to feel in top form, working hard and enjoying, and savoring every minute of every day.

We leave in a few days and will, on our arrival, fly down to Kyushu, the southernmost island of Japan, to Kagoshima to see Hiroko's father. I understand it is the most enchanting of all these enchanting islands. Then back to Osaka, and points north, to resume the serious business of this tour until our return here just before Christmas. All the news that's fit to be writ in January.

Our love, and every good wish for Christmas and New Year to Emmy, yourself and the family.

As ever,

A letter from Beth Evans told me all about the great concert with Ricci. But, which Kreisler concerto? Which Ysaye concerto? Indeed I am intrigued.

For your information the medication (injection) I am on is ESTRADURIN.
