Dear Meni:

Thank you for your letter. It was most unfortunate that your colleagues of the jury chose you to be their spokesman! Moreover, it is the first time I have ever known instruments of players criticized other than privately between the judges themselves.

Your jury's judgement of the players was perfectly correct and one with which I find myself in full agreement, (I told young de Veritch that he had been up against stiff competition) but I deplore that you took it upon yourselves <sup>to</sup> rule, publicly, on the make & quality of the instruments used. I will, of course, take the matter up with the other judges. But, I still maintain that it was unfortunate that you were chosen as spokesman.

It put me in an embarrassing position with the boy & his parents -

Sincerely,
Bm
