Lieber Temianka,

Mit gleicher Post schreibe ich an Frau Courtauld, mit der Bitte, Sie nett aufzunehmen und gegebenenfalls zu fördern.

Ich kenne Norwegen im Herbst und weiss, wie schön es dort sein kann.

Wegen Ihres Londoner Aufenthaltes rufe ich Ihnen nochmals ins Gedächtnis, was ich Ihnen schon seinerzeit darüber gesagt habe: nämlich G e d u l d , Geduld und nochmals Geduld.

Was es hier Neues gibt, lesen Sie wohl aus den Zeitungen: dreimal mies!!

Im Uebrigen dürfte es Sie interessieren, dass Totenberg den Mendelssohnpreis bekommen hat und darüber sehr glücklich ist. Er war Nr.eins.

Schülermeldungen schleppend.

Also lieber Temianka, ich wünsche Ihnen sehr viel Glück in Ihrer neuen Residenz; es wird mich immer freuen, möglichst Gutes von Ihnen zu hören.

Herzlichste Grüsse von

Besten Dank für Ihre
Condoleur in meinem 58.

Dear Temianka,

By the same mail I am writing to Mrs. Courtauld, with the request to receive you agreeably and to be helpful to you.

I know Norway in the autumn, and how beautiful it can be there.

As regards your stay in London, I must remind you once again of what I have already told you before, namely: patience, patience and again patience.

The news here you undoubtedly read in the newspapers: three times terrible!!

Other than that, it should interest you that Totenberg won the Mendelssohn prize and is very happy about that. He was number one.

Announced enrollments of students are dragging.

So dear Temianka, I wish you much luck in your new residence; it will always make me happy to hear hopefully nothing but good news from you.

Cordial greetings from

Flesch
