Dear Maestro Temianka!

I hope this letter finds you well, and enjoying a wonderful summer. The news about Nina is so terrific; you must be very proud of her...

My parents sent word that you have kindly offered to involve your insurance company in the loss of my coat at the rehearsal in the Bev. Wilshire hotel. I certainly appreciate this offer, but wouldn't want to take advantage of it if it might hurt your "relations" with the company. I know how insurance companies can be! If you still think I ought to go ahead with the claim, will it wait until early September (I will be away until then, and it would be difficult to get at the receipt until then)?

I will be at the Bach Festival until July 31, after that, who knows!!
