Henri dear,

It's just brilliant...that's all! You do write like a genius, even as you speak like one. And why you do not do more writing is something I cannot understand.

In the event you ever want to enlarge on this article, I've some pertinent grievances about the sponsorship of mediocrity in our area....about the growth of theatre, but not yet the achievement of great theatre....and a few other tidbits of disgruntlement. And a few compliments to Angelenos at the same time -- the increase of audience numbers, the converse of the edifice complex in that new buildings, properly programmed, definitely make new audiences; corporate interest in the arts, etc.

Anyway, I am truly grateful for the article, have no intention of returning it to you for I want to show it to everyone, and look eagerly toward your literary career.

Much love to you all,
