The day after the glorious
31st of May

Dearest Henry,

I was already walking on air when your beautiful flowers and their charming accompanying note arrived -- so all I could do was to rise a couple of feet higher in the air!

Your lovely gesture made a happy occasion complete, and I cannot adequately thank you for your sweetness to me, your miraculous way with our young audience, and your untiring efforts to help our community have this wonderful music for children.

All the untutored little housewives are bombarding me with your praises; all the children are counting minutes until June 14th is here. That is a truly significant success!! And musically it was just exquisite.

My congratulations to you -- and my best wishes for our continued joy and success through these happy, happy events.

Devotedly,
