The next morning

Henri dear:

I knew you were a success when my eight year old granddaughter asked me, when the "Carnival" was ended, "Grandma, is this what they call Classical Music?" And when I said it was, she exclaimed, "I love it!"

So you're still the Pied Piper, enchanting young and old, and making wonderful music for us all.

I do thank you for the invitation and for making it possible for the four of us to have such a gratifying evening. Seeing Emmy so beautiful and you so delightful brought me back to some of the more happy times of my life.

Devotedly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Marcia", written in dark ink.

P.S. Marc, incidentally, is feeling well, though sort of lethargic; but no angry side effects from all that intensive x-ray. We won't know until his next gastroscopy, in 2 months, whether the radiation did its job. I, personally, feel confident that it did....and his spirits are high, too.
