Dear Mr. Temianka:

Bob passed on to me (because I am more or less organizing the October 4-5 meetings) your fine piece in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. I'm having it reproduced and I intend to send it around to the participants as "background reading". I hope that's all right with you.

You will be getting some notes eventually on the other participants, housing arrangements, time schedule, etc. At the moment, besides you, Roger Stevens and Gifford Phillips, the attendees will be Lawrence Lipton of UCLA, Walter Hopps of the Pasadena Art Museum, TV critic Ernie Kreiling, and Jan Stussy. Three or four are still to be heard from.

Sincerely yours,
