Dear Traugott:

Thank you for your letter of March 22. I can well understand your reasons for finding my "Musical Impressions From Israel" unsuitable for The Instrumentalist, and am sure I shall have no trouble publishing it elsewhere.

In the meantime I send you, herewith enclosed, an article entitled "Conjectures About Electronic Sounds" by David B. Freed. (371 3rd Avenue, Salt Lake City, Utah 84103) I have a very high regard for David, who is a first-desk cellist in the Utah Symphony and a teacher at the University of Utah. It seems to me that his article is of superior quality, and perhaps you will want to use it.

I am putting the finishing touches to two articles of my own, which I hope you will find of interest. I shall be sending them to you quite soon.

With kindest regards,

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
