My dear Aaron:

I owe you an apology for replying so tardily to your lovely letter earlier this year. It is much too long since we have been in touch with each other. Your concert in Virginia City sounds fascinating, and I only wish it did not coincide with my Princess Cruise to Alaska, which begins on September 11 and continues to September 23. If you are still in California at that time I would love to see you.

Our own concert season does not start until much later, and commitments have been completed for the season. I do hope all is going well for you, and would love to see you again and make music with you.

With warmest regards.

Yours always,

Henri Temianka

P.S. I suppose you know that Mickey Rozsa had a stroke some months ago and is paralyzed on the left side. I visited him at his home a couple of days ago. Fortunately he has regained complete control of his speech and mental powers. Progress is very slow.
