My dear Nick,

At the present time the fates are not kind to us. Not content with jinxing our proposed performance with Leonard Pennario because of the difficult plane connections, I now find that I shall be unavailable on the evening of June 9 and 10. On both evenings I am scheduled for recording sessions that may go on until very late hours. I do hope we can at least get to talk to each other by phone, and explore plans for the future.

I am really sorry to miss you this time.

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
