Ann Arbor

Dear Henri,

I just finished reading your book. It is not only delightful but extremely fascinating as well. Your life and career have certainly not been dull and I <sup>am</sup> glad that I had the privilege of sharing a few years of both.

The reason for the lateness of this letter is that Jacqueline and I returned from Europe only a month ago. Since we have no more children at home we take advantage of our new found freedom.

As you know, Percy Kelt, one of your former students will join the faculty here in September. I am convinced that he will do a first rate job and fit in beautifully as a human being.

Jacqueline joins me in affectionate greetings to Emmy and the sons.

My wish to you, Harri, is that you may keep on "Facing the Music," for many years to come.

As ever,

Gustave
