27th June 1966.

Dear Henri,

John and I have just returned from Italy to find your letter awaiting us; it was sent on to us by the Houston office, and has only just reached us.

Regarding 3rd March 1967, unfortunately we haven't received any word yet of details of the tour schedule, but I am sure the Houston Symphony must have by this time. John suggests that it may be quicker for you to write to Tom Johnson and ask him for the schedule for March 3rd and two or three days before and after that date and we can then see whether or not it can be fitted in.

We are so sorry to have missed you during your brief visit to London. With affectionate greetings,

Yours ever,

Evelyn.
