Honorable Michel A. Rougagnou
Consul General de France
9255 Sunset Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90069

My dear Michel:

Please forgive me for responding in English to your beautiful letter of March 12, but it would be unfair to subject you to my handwriting. I am deeply touched by the honor conferred upon me by the Government of France, and I am fully aware that this is due entirely to your generous intervention and warm friendship. I accept the honor with deep gratitude.

I am equally touched by your generous offer to host a reception at your residence. In the course of the week I shall telephone you, in the hope that you can be my guest at lunch. This would be a delightful way to explore a mutually convenient date for the reception, as well as the number of guests that you would like to include.

I shall also be writing to His Excellency Jean-Philippe Lecat.

With warmest regards to you and Francoise,

Yours always,

Henri Temianka
