WASHINGTON

Dear Henri:

Thank you for your letter of June 15th. I agree that a course such as yours could be very helpful overseas. In exploring the whole problem, however, of cultural exchange I have found that we have woefully few funds for this type of activity. I will be delighted to look into this matter and give you future advice.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'P. Salinger', with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.
