JENS SCHRØDER

Mr. Henri Temianka,
c/o Hotel STANDARD,
Norrköping,
SWEDEN.

Dear Mr. Temianka,

Thank you very much for your telephone call last week. Unfortunately, did your letter of 22nd June arrive much too late for our dead-line for arranging concerts this coming season. Nevertheless, I am not without hope concerning 1971/72.

I understood that you had plans to pass Bergen on your way from Oslo to Germany and also that you might pass through Jutland in Denmark. When you come back to Oslo from Bergen you may go by train to Gothenborg, Sweden, from where there are several daily boat connections to Frederikshavn, Denmark.

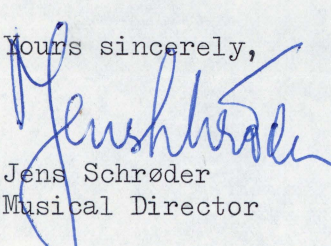

From Frederikshavn there are about 60 miles by train to Ålborg, and from Ålborg there are several international trains to the rest of the continent.

All this you and your wife could check in Stockholm or Oslo at a travel agency where you will get the best information.

If you send me a letter I shall give you an immediate answer whether it is possible for me to have a conversation with you at the time when you pass Ålborg.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Jens Schrøder
Musical Director
