Dear Mr. Temianka:

I was so thrilled to receive your letter!

What a joy it was to hear from you in person. You are so wonderful, and your suggestion that you might play some of the works of Bach and Handel in the Crystal Cathedral filled me with hope!

Let me know how we can proceed to see that this comes about. I would be so proud to meet with you and have Dr. Frederick Swann join in our conversation. I will have my secretary, Marjorie Kelley, call your office very soon to see what we can set up.

With much anticipation and every good wish,
God loves you and so do I!

Robert H. Schuller
