Greenwich, Connecticut

Dear Bill,

It is my turn to apologize. Your letter of July 1 arrived while I was on vacation in Mexico. In the meantime, I have received a copy of the July 30 letter which Miss Frances Inglis of UCLA has sent you. Perhaps you could let us know promptly what reservations you wish to be made with regard to hotels and transportation.

In response to your suggestion, I have been able to arrange that Gregg Smith will sing the three Carols of Death at the luncheon on October 3. This is a Saturday, and as you know from your own experience, it is a bad time for the press. For this reason, my public relations office has asked what possibility there would be of your arriving in time for a press conference on Friday morning, October 2 at 9:30 at the Ambassador Hotel. Under these circumstances, we could hope for prominent coverage in the press on Saturday, October 3.

Glossy photographs, 8x10, and other publicity material will also be necessary. Perhaps you could have your office send these to my office at Chamber Symphony Society of California
6715 Hollywood Boulevard
Hollywood, California 90028

I shall be at Tanglewood on August 16 and 17 to participate on the panel for the string symposium sponsored by the Berkshire Center and supported by the Martha Baird Rockefeller Foundation. On August 18, 19 and 20 I expect to be in New York, staying as usual at the Windsor Hotel. Would you please send me your telephone number so that I can get in touch with you while I am in New York next week, as there are various details which I would like to discuss with you personally, or at least by telephone.

Mr. William Schuman

In the hope that I may hear from you before leaving Los Angeles on the 15th,

Yours most cordially,
