Dear Henri:

Forgive my delay in replying to your letter, but we have been away. The problem is that I do not engage conductors at Lincoln Center. This is the responsibility of the organizations giving the concerts. If you are ever to be touring in this section with your orchestra, however, and wanted to rent a facility of the Center for an evening's concert, I believe I could be helpful to you.

Things are much better at home, and Frankie is now fully recovered, with the prognosis being declared good. Do please give my greetings to your lovely wife.

Always, with every good wish to you, I am

Faithfully,

William Schuman
