Dear Henri:

"Symphony for Strings" under Steinberg was recorded on Capitol Records. Their headquarters are in California. One gathers that they have no interest any more in serious music. But since they are on the West Coast, I thought you might make the direct approach. Probably some library in Los Angeles would have it.

It was a great pleasure seeing you today, and it makes me look forward to my California visit. Still no title for the University lecture, but I keep thinking about it.

Yours,

William Schuman
