Dear Bill,

I am delighted to have your telegram advising me that you can be in Los Angeles on October 3 and remain through October 6 or 7. It gives me great pleasure to be able to confirm herewith, formally, our arrangements.

The performance of your Symphony for Strings and of the Song of Orpheus is scheduled at Royce Hall for Sunday evening, October 4. The other events -- your lecture at UCLA, your luncheon banquet under our auspices, and the chamber music recital -- will now be rescheduled. I shall advise you as soon as possible as to the exact dates.

I have a formal commitment from UCLA, undertaking to assume responsibility for your transportation from New York to Los Angeles and back, plus the sum of $500. It is my understanding that Chancellor Franklin Murphy will be writing to you personally to confirm the above financial arrangements. All administrative matters pertaining to this will be handled through the office of Miss Francis Inglis.

It would be much appreciated if you could send the cello part and piano reduction for the Song of Orpheus as soon as possible, as the cello soloist, Miss Christina Walevska, is most anxious to begin to study it. She is a brilliant young cellist who is making a successful career in Europe, and I am confident that you will be highly satisfied with her performance.

We are all looking forward with great pleasure to your visit here, and we shall try to make it a most happy and meaningful experience for all concerned.

Yours most cordially,

HT:pk
