Dear Henri:

Thank you so much for your letter which has just arrived. My publisher, Mr. Arthur A. Hauser, president of Theodore Presser Company, Bryn Mawr, Pa., has been asked to forward to you the score, piano reduction and cello part of "A Song of Orpheus." The "Symphony for Strings," as you undoubtedly know, is through G. Schirmer, Inc.

I presume you will make arrangements to reschedule the UCLA appearances. It was my thought to speak about Lincoln Center, since I think this might be of interest to the kind of informed audience you will probably have. I hope this will be agreeable to you and UCLA.

Do please let me know as quickly as you can when the other events are scheduled. I should leave to be back East in time for engagements on the 8th. Even better, the 7th. But if necessary I could remain the 7th. I look forward to your next communication. Please excuse my haste. Tonight we open the New York State Theater.

Yours,

William Schuman
