Dear Ted:

I am titillated by the following works in your catalogue, and since no recordings of these are in existence, could you send me the scores for study?

Also, Brahms wrote his first serenade, Opus 11, originally as an octet for strings and winds. Have you any idea where I might obtain this original version?

You will be interested to know that Geiringer never dignified my letter with a reply.

Yours very cordially,

Henri Temianka
