Dear Henri:

I am certain that we have not yet heard the last of the SEVEN LAST WORDS. I would be delighted to contribute to the new hair-shirt and would gladly help to underwrite a portion of the pilgrimage to Haydn's grave. There are many other examples of this individual's scholarship which have caused wonderment to me in the past.

I hope that at some time you will let me know who published the score that is in your possession. There is no reason that we cannot make a decent set of parts from such an edition unless it is tied up by copyright.

I am very relieved that these peccadillos of this illustrious individual will not impinge in any way upon our relationship.

With warm regards.

Cordially,

THE EDWIN A. FLEISHER MUSIC COLLECTION
