NEW YORK, April 6, 1966

Dear Friend :

I was very grateful for your warm letter and I want to thank you for it. I am looking forward to work with James Fields next winter at the Curtis Institute.

From Bill Judd I had heard already about the possibility to find a date during the next season to play with you in Los Angeles. Of course, I am very disappointed. I hope you know how much it would mean to me to play Mozart concertos with you conducting.

With affectionate greetings,

Yours as ever,

Rudi .
