Dear Mr. Temianka,

My sincere thanks for a most gracious note.

The TV Guide article left me stunned. I'm a fairly vulnerable man when it comes to articles and am not unused to some rather loaded editorial judgments. But I was quite unprepared for the rather flagrant discoloration of my views as they appeared in the so-called "debate" in the issue that you mentioned.

I should, indeed, be delighted to meet you and would very much appreciate a rain check. I am off to points east this week for a period of several weeks. When I return I'll take you up on your offer.

Personal regards,

Rod Serling
