Dear Henri,

I've been served a
subpena to appear in court on Monday at an appeal of the unemployment tax case.

I'm very sorry to have unwittingly triggered off such a bothersome problem. and will certainly try to avoid making things any more difficult at the hearing than they already are for you.

It was nice of Emmy to tell me last fall that she would like to see more of me. Unfortunately my social service work at the UCCA Medical Center plus my musical activities have pretty well eliminated any other social (!) activities I might care to engage in - at least until June.

Best regards to you
both and to your mother and sister (I had a long talk with Rose at the banquet),

Butel
