Dear Temianka Family,

As you can well imagine, I was deeply shocked by the untimely event of our beloved Henri Temianka. As you may recall, I met Henri upon many occasions and I always enjoyed his conversation and his bright outlook on the world. I never thought he would precede me in the world of departures. He seemed so full of life and so determined to make the best of it. Destiny is not always fair, and for Henri it was most difficult to absorb. Let us all remember him as he was, full of life.

Devotedly,

Nicolas Slonimsky
