Dear Henri:

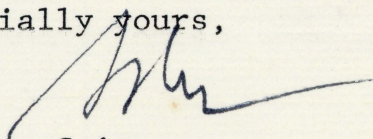

I cannot tell you how much I enjoyed your book. I read it in two sessions, the last time I did this was when I was a youngster reading Karl May.

I also skipped my favorite T. V. Soccer game Saturday afternoon so that I could finish your book with a nostalgic mood and very proud of knowing you.

I want to extend my best wishes to both you and your wife for the holidays and the New Year.

I remain,

Cordially yours,

Arthur Spitzer
