Dear Henri,

Thank you so much for sending me the photocopies of the pages in your book referring to Bronislaw Huberman as in the letter. I have read them with great interest and am glad to have them. Anything in German would be useless as I do not read it really well at all. It was good to see you in Los Angeles. By now you must have received our regular New Year's card. We hope that you enjoyed it.

With warmest greetings to you both,

Yours as ever,

Isaac Stern
