Dear Emmy + Henri,

Isaac and I just spent time in Israel and can report to you that our beloved AICF is instrumental in helping Russian newcomers to settle in their new freedom.

Among many cases that came to our attention was a young boy of 17 who asked particularly to play for Isaac. After listening to him, your Chairman of the Board (my husband) was so taken by the boy's talent and potential that he immediately recommended a full scholarship for him. Benny Gal-Ed, our Director in Israel, was only too happy to set the wheels in motion to accomplish this. There are so many musicians among the Russians. In Jewish philosophy we say that saving one soul is saving the world. AICF is saving many souls these days.

This can only be achieved if our membership campaign is strong and funds are available for all these newly arrived artists as well as our existing scholarship recipients. Your membership is so important in making it all possible.

You will receive not only pleasure for helping, but also an appropriate gift or gifts according to your membership category.

We look forward to hearing from you. With all good wishes.

Cordially,

Mrs. Isaac Stern
Vice President

I was sorry to miss you and the L.A. concert —
