My very dear Isaac:

Hopefully this note will reach you next Monday, July 21, to add to the countless congratulations upon your 66th birthday. First of all, my loving good wishes to you, Vera and your wonderful family for many more years of good health, happiness and continuing triumphs. In addition to that I want to express my admiration for your Carnegie Hall achievement. All of us are almost speechless with awe at your extraordinary qualities of leadership and creativity. Carnegie Hall will stand as a monument to your determination and ability to achieve so great a victory against all odds. And I especially admire you for doing all this, and yet at the same time remaining a caring human being and a loyal and loving friend. I look forward with great joy to our celebration together on October 14.

With love from Emmy and me,

Yours ever,

Henri
