My Dear Isaac:

Tuesday, October 14, it is! The celebration will take place at the Grand Trianon Room of the Beverly Wilshire Hotel which can accomodate about 300 of my most intimate friends. The Grand Ballroom easily seats twice as many and while I agree with Barry Goldwater's dictum that excess of intimacy is no vice, enough is enough. Without putting the major emphasis on fund-raising, we do expect our good friends to generate a needed surplus, especially in support of the many free concerts we give annually in public schools and for physically and mentally handicapped children.

Dear Isaac, let me thank you once more for being such a generous, giving friend. I shall keep you informed of developments, and look forward to a happy and joyous evening with you and Vera.

Yours ever,

Henri
