My dear Isaac,

This week has been dominated by the news in the media of the reopening of Carnegie Hall, and your monumental achievement in making it possible. I have followed it all with glowing pride and affection, and send you my heartfelt congratulations, which I know you will share with Vera.

Emmy joins me in sending you loving thoughts and best wishes for the New Year.

Yours ever,

Heidi

Dear Isaac, I loved your letter of Jan. 13 just received. But the words "as you probably have seen" would indicate that you never received my congratulatory note of Dec. 18 (see above). As you can see, I basked in your glory. You must have received thousands of messages.

I hope I shall have the good fortune to find you in New York between Feb. 20 and 24
Very yours a tr. Heidi
