Dear Henri:

Along with copy number two of our New Year's card (Vera's explanation is on the card), my apologies for delaying this reply to your letter of February 6, but I have been traveling constantly and I am home only for a day and a half between concerts to change bags and clothes and go out again.

I shall be honored to join with all your other distinguished invitees to be a ceremonial co-chairman of your 25th anniversary. You certainly have created a magnificent body of achievement in this quarter century and you should take great pleasure from it.

It was good to hear of your continuing activity in the cause of making good music in the right way, as you always have. I do hope our paths will cross at some point before too long. Regrettably, on April 28 I shall be in the midst of performances with the New York Philharmonic and therefore unable to join you at the Allegro Ball. But knowing your own organizational and inspirational qualities, and the many people who have helped you over the years, I am sure it will be a glittering success.

Take care and accept affectionate greetings from house to house.

Cordially,

Isaac Stern
