Dear Henri,

Thank you so much for your note of August 14th and the very interesting announcement of the activities planned for the "80th Henri" celebration on October 14th. If you want to get in touch with me and there is no answer in New York try (203) 354-2137, our home in Connecticut. However, I may be away from there for a few days from Sunday the 24th of August until the 28th on a motor trip through Maine to hear a few of the concerts our son Michael will be conducting. From the weekend of the 30th until you leave for Hong Kong and China you will be able to find me in either New York or Connecticut.

With affectionate greetings from house to house,

As always,

Isaac Stern
