My dear Henry:

The magnificent books, the scroll and the utterly seductive and delicious fruits all arrived safely as well as your note of April 14th. You are far too generous in your thanks, but I am delighted that the evening proved to be such a success, and I hope that it will indeed trigger off a chain reaction of continued and effective support for the orchestra.

Many thanks too to you for all your colleguely cooperation, both as a friend and a performer.

Vera and I send you and Emmy our affectionate greetings.

As ever,
