Dear Henri,

Thank you so much for your thoughtful note of August 14th regarding the birthday party you are giving Martin Kamen on Thursday, August 27th. I have put it into my book and, with luck and some attention, will remember to look at it and call you at one of the two numbers you gave me at the appropriate time. What a typically graceful and warm gesture on the part of you and Emmy to do this for Martin.

I have, indeed, spoken to him after the tragic news came but have not been in touch in the last few weeks. Vera joins me in sending our most affectionate greetings from house to house.

Cordially, as ever,

Isaac Stern
