Mr. Isaac Stern
211 Central Park West, #19F
New York, NY 10024

My dear Isaac:

Words are inadequate to describe the luster and joy you brought to last week's celebration by your generous, loving participation. I felt as if you and I were suddenly re-living the early, carefree days of our youthful friendship in San Francisco in 1940.

Your concert schedule in Los Angeles would have been murderous for anyone else, and I doubly appreciated the grace and affection you lavished on our wonderful extravaganza.

Vera was a delight as my table partner. My loving thoughts, and Emmy's, to both of you; may a kindly fate bring us together again soon.

Yours ever,

Henri
