Dear Henry,

You are absolutely, unequivocally, incontrovertibly correct!
I did ask you to send the tapes, and they were received, but I have been moving faster than a proverbial bat out of and will not light until the middle of June, when I get back from my last travels, and begin a long-needed respite.

The plans into which such activity as we discussed would fit will not be realized for at least a year as some other things have come up that must be arranged and settled before we can embark on our own developments.

But I do thank you for sending the tapes and I will write to you shortly after June 18th, with what will no doubt be a most enthusiastic comment.

Please forgive my delay in not replying or acting. It was not inattention, but lack of time.

Findest greetings,

As ever,

Isaac Stern
