My dear Isaac:

It was a great joy watching you on television last night. You were in great form, and you had an admiring audience in the Temianka family.

Arrangements for the October 14 celebration are proceeding smoothly, with a number of our good friends planning to join us, including Janos Starker, Nick Rosen, John Williams, and many of my actor friends, such as Burt Lancaster etc. You had mentioned Danny Kaye. I know him only slightly, but shall mention him to Burt as soon as he returns from Europe.

I shall be in New York at the Essex House on May 9 & 10, en route to London, and shall try to give you a jingle.

With affectionate greetings to you and Vera, in which Emmy joins me,

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
