Dear Mr Ternianka —

Your splendid trouncing of the pseudo-critics and your gallant support of Yehudi Menuhin will have gladdened the hearts of many "Westways" readers, who wish (as you and I surely do) that certain of the more offensive among the music-mafia might be sent to a penitentiary.

I still remember a beautiful and shapely performance of the Arcusky Trio which you gave on the BBC in 1937 (or thereabouts) when I was 15 years old and crazy about music. It's good to know that you are ever active in your own field and much alive to the problems of our musical world.

Yours sincerely,
Denis Stevens

Dear Mr Temianka –

I still remember a beautiful and shapely performance of the Arensky Trio which you gave on the BAC in 1937 (or Thereabouts) when I was 15 years old and crazy about music. It’s good to know that you are ever active in your own field and much alive to the problems of our musical world.

Yours sincerely,
