Dear Temi:

I received with delight your wonderful fan letter, and planned to answer it together with all the many other I had received, none of which, however, gave me more pleasure than yours.

Now the receipt of your Handel Sonatas forces my hand and I have to drop you this line although I am swamped with work of all sorts. So, only "Thank you, thank you," and here's hoping that we may meet again sometime during the rest of our lives.

All best,

George Szell
