HARKNESS PAVILION
180 FORT WASHINGTON AVENUE
NEW YORK 32, N.Y.

My dear Teui,
I just got your letter here in the hospital where I had to spend some time (operation after measles) I am recovering rapidly but I have not taken up my regular correspondence yet. But I wish to answer your letter immediately just to tell you that nothing has changed between us.

I, too, on any part was wondering about some atmosphere of distance between us last summer - I am glad you brought up the subject - lets just call it a temporary atmospheric disturbance. - We were in Boston when you had your NY recital - otherwise you would have seen us. He shall be in NY until July 14 - then via Rarima to the coast where I hope to see you. Love from us both to Eunice and to yourself. As ever Jeph

P.S. I shall be home next week.
