Dear Henri:

My most profound congratulations on a superb performance in every respect.

The Latin American Festival was a triumph on all counts.

Most impressive was your virtuosity, not only as a conductor, a musician, and a commentator but in every other area as well. You charmed, enlightened and delighted. And if there was a detail you didn't have a hand in, I don't know what it could be.

The impact of the event was very great, and I think we shall feel its happy overtones for a long time to come.

My warmest good wishes on your tour. Herman and I send our best to you and Emmy and look forward to seeing you on your return.

Get some rest and relaxation sometime soon, you hear? That's a man-killing pace. But magnificent!

Cordially,

Edith
