Dear Henri:

Enclosed is check for Twenty-five dollars for the California Chamber Symphony Society.

Thank you, dear Henri, for seating us at your table.

The evening was delightful. To say, "I've grown accustomed to your pace" does not mean I am not constantly astonished. Each evening is a new tour de force. Your musicianship, verve, inventiveness, platform charm, elan, warmth, and spontaneity, is matched only by your wittiness and gift for the mot juste.

Herman was infinitely touched by your toast, as was, of course, I. To think of others at a moment of personal triumph is a measure of your rare capacity.

Our love to Emmy, who looked radiant.

Cordially,

Edith Weiss
